SOUTH CAROLINA LAWS

Regarding the Liquor Traffic Declared Unconstitutional.

A BLOW AT CITIZENS' RIGHTS.

Judge Simonon Declares That the Law Discriminates Against the Products of Other States—Governor Evans Declares He Will Continue the Seizures.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 9.—A great crowd gathered at the United States court room to hear the decisions in the registration and dispensary cases. People were packed like sardines in its somewhat limited space and in the corridor leading to it. Judges Goff and Simonon, of the United States circuit court, were both on the bench. When the registration decision was read the collected spectators expressed their joy so noisily that they had to be called to order. The case brought by Pope and Caldwell to prevent the holding of the constitutional convention was thrown out of court, as well as also their dispensary case. The decisions were rendered upon the dispensary case brought by J. P. K. Bryan, of Charleston, and the registration case brought by S. A. Douglass, of Washington.

Judge Simonon read the decision in the dispensary case. After reviewing it he held that it was not a suit against the state, and that the court sitting in equity had jurisdiction over it. He said: "It is not necessary to go into a minute and detailed examination of all the provisions of the dispensary law. It is sufficient for the purposes of this case to say that in so far as the dispensary law forbids a citizen to purchase in other states, and to import into this state alcoholic liquors for his own use and consumption, it discriminates against the products of other states."

"Such discrimination cannot be made under the guise of the police power and further, in so far as this act permits the chief dispenser to purchase in other states alcoholic liquors and to import them into this state for the purpose of selling them for use and consumption at retail within the state, and forbids all other persons from so purchasing and importing for their individual use and consumption, it discriminates against all persons in the trade in other states who are not patronized by the state dispenser forbidding them to seek customers within the state, and to enjoy a commercial intercourse secured to them in this state. Let an injunction issue."

The contempt cases against State Liquor Commissioner Mixson and Constables Davis and Lufar were dismissed, it being considered that they had purged themselves of contempt.

The opponents of the dispensary system naturally are highly elated, and the wires are kept hot ordering liquor from Augusta and other points outside of the state.

The state authorities, while defeated, propose to continue the fight. Governor Evans says seizures will be made to test the injunction, but it had not been fully determined exactly what course would be pursued. The Southern express officials called upon Governor Evans to find out whether they would be liable under the state law for bringing in articles that they would be compelled to under the decision. The governor gave them no definite answer, but told them they had better go slow until the state decided what course it would pursue.

Judge Goff read the decision declaring the registration laws of South Carolina unconstitutional. Judge Goff's decision is very lengthy and exhaustive. After stating the salient features of the case as presented by the attorneys he carefully reviews the history of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the federal constitution, whose express purpose he holds was to guarantee the right of suffrage to the citizens of African descent.

He declares that the registration laws of South Carolina are in conflict with those provisions in that their evident intent and purpose is to facilitate the voting of white citizens while making it hard for the "inferior race" to prepare for casting their ballots. He reviews the provisions of the registration law to show how hard they make it for African citizens to vote.

"I find no warrant in the legislation for the forfeit required by the registration law to be issued to the voter, the production of which is required at the polls or his vote is to be rejected. This is not registration, which is simply the entering on the books or lists of voters of the names of those qualified under the legislation to vote, but it is an additional requirement to those mentioned in the organic law, not intended, I am constrained to believe, to facilitate the full free and legal expression of those entitled to exercise the right of suffrage. Such requirement is unreasonable, burdensome and harassing, and it clearly impedes and abridges the right of the constitutional voters of the state to cast their ballots."

As Judge Goff has not enjoined the holding of the constitutional convention, it will be held, probably without any registration provisions at all, the whites being confident they can carry it.

Tracey Knocks Out Cavanaugh.

GALVESTON, Tex., May 9.—Tom Tracey put Tom Cavanaugh to sleep in the eighth round before a large audience in the Tremont Opera house last night. The men weighed in at 145 pounds each. John Duffy, of New Orleans, acted as referee. The first round was tame, but the following rounds were hot enough to satisfy the most enthusiastic pugilist. Cavanaugh came up groggy for the eighth round, and finally Tracey landed a terrific blow on Cavanaugh's breast, which settled him, and he was counted out.

Two Bandits on a Raid.

GUTHRIE, O. T., May 9.—Two armed bandits made a wholesale raid through the country thirty miles east of here. At John McClellan's, near Tyrone, they robbed McClellan and his son of a large sum of money, and then went to a neighboring stable and stole two fresh horses. A number of other houses were visited and the occupants held up. They reached George Ross' place, near Dale, whom they robbed of $200, a watch and a gun, but threw the two latter articles away after going a short distance.

Two Workmen Killed by a Falling Wall.

HAZLETON, Pa., May 9.—Two men were killed and a third severely injured by a falling wall on Broad street yesterday. The killed are Christian Stillwagon and Emanuel Altenbach, and the injured Samuel Griffiths. The men were working for Contractor Buhe as masons, and were building a foundation between two houses. A wall fifteen feet high stood on one side, supporting the adjoining house. The support of this wall was dug away, and so weakened it that it toppled over on the workmen.

Massacre of Christians Prevented.

LONDON, May 9.—A dispatch from Erzinghan, Asiatic Turkey, says that a massacre of Christians at that place was prevented by the arrest of the chief conspirators in the plot. The dispatch adds that the evidence taken at Moush by the Turkish minister of inquiry tends to fix the responsibility for the recent massacres on Tala-in Pasha, late governor of Bitlis, who stated in official dispatches that the Armenians had raised the standard of rebellion.

Libel Charge Denied a Pardon.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The president denied the petition for the pardon of William C. Chase, who was recently convicted of publishing a libel against C. H. J. Taylor, recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia. Both Chase and Taylor are colored, and the conviction and sentence of Chase to ninety days' imprisonment was the outcome of a bitter factional controversy which was started here on the appointment of Taylor (a non-resident) nearly two years ago.

Pennsylvania American Mechanics.

SCRANTON, Pa., May 9.—The state council of the Order of United American Mechanics, now in session here, decided to hold the next session in Chambersburg. For the better government of the order the state was divided into three districts. These officers were elected: State councillor, Howard H. Holstein, of Harrisburg; state vice councillor, John M. Hornbaker, of Madisonville; state secretary, Walter Graham, of Philadelphia.

Rossa in the House of Commons.

LONDON, May 9.—O'Donovan Rossa, the well known Irish agitator of New York, created a scene in the house of commons yesterday by rising in his seat in the speakers' gallery and endeavoring to address the house. He was promptly ejected. Rossa says he simply wanted to deny an alleged assertion of Henry Labouchere that he (Rossa) had received money from the British government.

Stage Coach Held Up and Robbed.

CALESTOGA, Cal., May 9.—A stage coach running between this place and Clear Lake was held up and robbed by two masked men, who secured about $1,200 in cash, and looted the Wells Fargo treasure box. It is not known how much they got from the box. The highwaymen also secured considerable valuable jewelry. A reward of $1,200 is offered for their capture.

A Minister Pleads Guilty of Bigamy.

LIVERPOOL, May 9.—William Browne, a Baptist minister, pleaded guilty to the charge of bigamy in court here. Elizabeth Marchant is the name of the woman whom Browne married while he still had a lawful wife, and whom he afterwards deserted in New York city, where it is alleged she now is, penniless and insane. The court deferred sentence.

An Embarrassed Miller Attempts Suicide.

FAIRBURY, Ill., May 9.—John B. Taylor, member of the Quincy milling firm, which assigned yesterday, attempted suicide last evening. He was found hanging in the park at his residence in time to save his life. It is believed he was temporarily deranged, and that there was no need whatever for the appointment of a receiver for the firm.

A Noted English Artist Dying.

LONDON, May 9.—A dispatch from Algiers announces that Sir Frederick Leighton, president of the Royal Academy, who has been ill for some time, is now in such a serious condition that hope of his recovery has been abandoned. Sir Frederick, who is now in his 55th year, is admittedly the greatest of English artists.

VICTORY FOR PENROSE.

Alleged Philadelphia Corruption to be Investigated.

THE INVESTIGATORS APPOINTED.

William H. Andrews, of Crawford County, will probably be chairman of the committee, which will begin its work after the legislature adjourns.

HARRISBURG, May 9.—In the senate yesterday the Penrose resolution, providing for an investigation of the administration of the municipal affairs of Philadelphia, was reported with a favorable recommendation by the general judiciary committee to perform that task. Mr. Osborn, of Philadelphia, who stated during the discussion of the original resolution when introduced that he would be almost tempted to resign his seat if it were adopted, was the only senator who recorded his vote against the resolution. Lieutenant Governor Lyon announced as the committee to make the investigation Messrs. Andrews of Crawford, Grady of Philadelphia, Kennedy of Allegheny, McCarroll of Dauphin, Hard-suburg of Wayne and President Pro Tem. Thomas of Philadelphia.

There is a criticism that the committee has no Democratic senator in it. This is explained by Senator Penrose in this way. The committee consists of but five members, and the Democrats do not control one-fifth of the membership of the senate. Consequently, as a party it is not entitled to recognition in this committee. Another reason given to the Democrats why they have no representative on the committee is that this is to be an investigation of a Republican city by a Republican senate. The Democrats are grumbling at the snub, however.

Stas W. Pettit, president of the Union League, will be chosen general counsel, and will have the opportunity to become a Goff. The committee will not begin the investigation until after the legislature adjourns.

The chairman will be elected by the committee when it organizes. The chairman of the committee, it is thought, will be Mr. Andrews.

The calendar of bills on third reading and final passage having been cleared, the senate took up the second reading calendar, and sixteen bills were passed on second reading, when the senate adopted a resolution to adjourn until next Tuesday afternoon.

The patriotic societies received their first setback in the house by the refusal of that body to pass finally the Landis bill in its original form. The measure, as it passed the senate, required school boards to purchase out of the public funds flags made of American hunting by American workmen, out of American wool, and displayed in the school houses in their respective districts on staffs of American timber. The bill was amended so as to make it permissive, and then laid aside for printing.

The Andrews bill, requiring railroads in Crawford county to build fences along the line of their lands in that county, was killed on final passage by a very decisive vote. This measure has been before the legislature at every session since 1857. Only once it was passed, and then it was vetoed by Governor Pattison. Its friends will endeavor to have it reconsidered and make another fight to pass it.

Chairman Niles reported from the general judiciary committee a statement of its action on the petition of James W. M. Newlin, of Philadelphia, charging Judge Gordon with holding a secret court in violation of the bill of rights, and asking that impeachment proceedings be instituted against the judge. The committee completely exonerated Judge Gordon and dismissed the petition.

Greater Pittsburg Bills Signed.

HARRISBURG, May 9.—Greater Pittsburg is assured. The three annexation bills were approved yesterday by the governor. In honor of this action the Pittsburg members of the house and senate tendered a banquet last night to the legislature, state officials and employees. Over 400 covers were laid and Senator Flinn acted as toastmaster.

Income Tax Hearing Closed.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The rehearing of the income tax case in the supreme court was concluded yesterday, and the nine justices took the question of the constitutionality of the act in whole or in part, under consideration. On the 20th of this month the court will meet, probably for the last time this term, to render its decisions in pending cases, and it is expected that its conclusions upon the income tax will be announced at that time. Mr. Joseph H. Choate, of New York, finished the closing argument which he began on Tuesday. Justice Jackson was one of the most tentative of the nine men on the bench throughout the hearing.

The Armistice Extended.

YOKOHAMA, May 9.—China has asked for a further extension of the armistice granted by Japan in order that the ratification of the treaty of peace may be exchanged. Japan has consented to extend the time of the armistice five days. Count Mijoi, secretary general of the Japanese council of ministers, arrived at Chefoo on Tuesday and met Lord Li, son of Li Hung Chang, and junior Chinese peace commissioner. Count Mijoi acts for Viscount Mutsu, the Japanese foreign minister, who is ill, in the exchange of the peace treaty ratifications.

Peace in Hayti.

NEW YORK, May 9.—It was reported on board the Atlas line steamship Andes, which arrived last night from Haytian ports, that just before she sailed for New York, President Hippolyte, of Hayti, with his army, had returned from a tour of the republic, and that peace prevailed. The legislative body was to meet shortly, and it was rumored that inquiries were to be made as to alleged frauds in relation to the public funds.

THE STRIKING COAL MINERS.

Still No Signs of Disorder—The Railroad Practically Idle.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., May 9.—About 2,000 of the striking miners met in West Virginia, near Maybury, last evening. The assembly was orderly, and the whole field is now a unit to accomplish success. General J. A. Holley, adjutant of the West Virginia militia, has been on the ground since Sunday, and has made a practical study of the position. He has conversed with the miners, ridden over the disturbed territory, and as a result says there is no just cause for fear. In the event of trouble the West Virginia troops, he states, would be moved there in less than two hours. Fully 95 per cent. of them are now ready and equipped.

The railroad shops here have practically suspended, only about twenty-five men out of 300 being at work. Many of the employees of the road are leaving. The railroad is doing really no business. The foreign miners are hourly expected on a special train, and this feature of the strike and the ejection of miners from their homes is the only phase of the condition from which trouble may occur. General Superintendent Hippey, of the Norfolk and Western railroad, is still here and keeps informed thoroughly as to the railroad's interests.

No one knows what move the miners will next make.

The Eastern Peace Settlement.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The Japanese and Chinese legations are expectant of final developments on the peace settlement, but no official statement of the exchange of ratifications has been received yet. It is known positively that the treaty formally ratified and exchanged probably is identical with the one originally negotiated at Shimomoseki. Such changes as Russia and some of the other powers have insisted on will not be incorporated into the present treaty. It is believed here that the indemnity will be increased 1,000,000 taels, and that the occupation of Port Arthur is likely to be for a term of years.

The Pittsburg Strikers.

PITTSBURG, May 9.—The puddlers of the Clinto mill have not been granted the $1 rate and struck early this morning. The night force says it will try to stop the day turn from going to work. The 1,000 men in the National Tube works, McKeesport, were yesterday granted an increase of 10 per cent. The firm reduced the men 20 per cent. last year. The Jones & Laughlin blast furnace men, to the number of 1,570, were also given a voluntary advance of 10 per cent. Part of the furnaces at Sharon have granted the 10 per cent. increase.

The Fair Will Hearing Postponed.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Yesterday was the day set for hearing the petition for the probating of the Fair will dated Sept. 21, 1894, to which opposition has been filed by Charles L. Fide. At the request of the executors a continuance was granted for one week, to enable the executors to consider this proposition. The executors, however, do not concede young Fair's right to contest the will. The Fair children object to be represented among the minor heirs, among whom is Herman Oelrichs, Jr.

Taylor Committed for Trial.

LOXON, May 9.—Frank Taylor, alias Frank Tarboux, at one time the leader of the notorious Johnny Irving gang of New York, charged with being concerned with William Carroll Woodward in a cut-throat fight near Regent's Park last year, and who is also charged with being implicated in defrauding tradesmen in connection with a man named Minchin, otherwise the Hon. Willard Muirgrave, who posed as a rich American senator, was committed for trial yesterday.

Meredith Wilson Resentenced to Death.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 9.—Charles F. Wilson, who killed Detective James Harvey in this city on July 31, 1893, was brought to this city from Auburn state prison for resentencing. Justice Wright named the week beginning June 17 as the time for the electrocution. Wilson expects executive clemency. Lucius, alias "Dink" Wilson, a brother of Charles, recently suffered death for the same crime as that for which the latter was resentenced.

His Wish Will be Gratified.

JERSEY CITY, May 9.—The jury in the case of Paul Genz, who was on trial for shooting his mistress, Clara Arvin, in Hoboken, on Aug. 28 last, brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree after being out all night. The prisoner was committed for sentence. Genz, who was a steamship fireman, killed Miss Arvin in a fit of jealousy. He has frequently expressed a desire to be hanged.

Not Guilty of Murder.

SEABURY, Pa., May 9.—William Taylor, colored, was last night acquitted of the murder of Samuel Franklin colored, whom he shot on Nov. 21 last at the Scott colliery, near Mt. Carmel. Taylor alleged self defense.

PRICE'S CONFESSION.

The Maryland Murderer Admits His Fearful Crime.

HE ALONE KILLED SALLIE DEAN.

He Endeavored to Implicate School Teacher Corkran on Account of a Grudge and to Save Himself from Being Lynched—Led to Confess by a Woman's Appeal.

BALTIMORE, May 9.—Price, the convicted murderer of Miss Dean, of Denton, has made a full confession, in which he admits that he alone committed the deed. Up to Tuesday night he stoutly adhered to his first story, in which he charged Grant Corkran, a popular young school teacher, with being the principal in the crime, upon the strength of which Corkran spent a week in jail. His admission that he is guilty of the double crime aroused so much anger that the authorities brought Price to Baltimore for safe keeping.

Price made this statement without a tremor:

"When I went into the woods on the morning of the murder I knew that Sallie Dean usually passed along the road nearby on her way to school. When I saw her approaching I went to her and talked for a minute or two."

"After we talked for a while I struck Sallie with the three cornered stone that was exhibited at the trial and then cut her throat. I dragged her body into the woods and covered it with a cedar bush. I buried her lunch pail, her books, the stone and the knife. When the body was found I was active in trying to locate the murderer, for I did not wish the authorities to suspect me. After I told the detectives of my dream they, of course, thought I murdered the girl, and they eventually fastened the guilt on me."

"Why did you implicate Grant Corkran in the murder?"

"Because I had a grudge against him, in the first place, and secondly, because I was under the influence of liquor when I made the statement to Marshal Frey. The people of Caroline county were anxious to lynch the murderer, and I knew that if I held to my statement about Corkran I would be safe from harm."

Price intimates that he was induced to confess when he received a letter from a lady in Baltimore who signed herself "S. M. J., 1123 West Fayette street." The lady sent Price a prayer book, and urged him to confess and free Grant Corkran's name.

The Deadly Gasoline Stove.

BALTIMORE, May 9.—Abraham Silberman, aged 45; Samuel Silberman, his son; Sarah and Celia Silberman, daughters; Mrs. Max Cohn and Mrs. Molly Sachs were seriously burned last evening by the explosion of a gasoline stove in the small room in which all were at work on men's garments. Escape from the room by the door was impossible and the Silbermans saved themselves by dropping from a small window to a cornice some twenty feet below. Mrs. Cohn and Mrs. Sachs were rescued in an insensible condition, and both may die.

No Disorder in Nicaragua.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The uprising in Nicaragua, as a result of the Corinto incident, appears to have been of brief duration, according to advices received by Dr. Guzman, the Nicaraguan minister. A dispatch from his government informs him that there is quiet throughout the country. The departure of the British fleet and the salute given to the Nicaraguan flag are regarded as the steps which have restored tranquility. No further internal discord is expected.

The Evils of Speculation.

EAT CLAIR, Wis., May 9.—Judge Bailey yesterday sentenced Embezzler Harry B. McMaster to two years in the state prison at Waupun, with hard labor. In his charge he declared that the only way to suppress such cases of embezzlement was to strike at the root of public gambling. The Chicago board of trade, he believed, had caused more distress, ruined more men and wrecked more families than the civil war.

Governor Morrill Still at Liberty.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 9.—Governor Morrill was not arrested yesterday, as was announced by the attorneys in the case, for the reason, they say, that the man who is to swear to the complaint could not reach Topeka. The attorneys insist that the arrest will be made, and that Morrill will have to submit to the law the same as any private citizen.

Secretary Gresham Rapidly Improving.

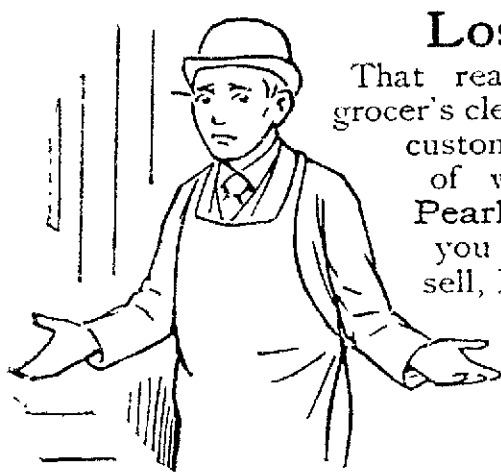

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Secretary of State Gresham had a good day, and the improvement in his condition continues. Barring any complications that may arise his progress toward recovery, although necessarily slow, is expected to be steady. For the past few days the condition of Representative Hitt has continued to show a very slight, but perceptible improvement. Admiral Almy is reported to be comfortable. Representative Cogswell is about the same.

That Chicago Confederate Monument.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—The proposed unveiling of the Confederate monument in Chicago on Memorial Day has drawn an expression from Anna M. Ross post No. 91, G. A. R. of this city, that "We consider it a gross insult to the memories of our departed comrades and all survivors who fought in the Union cause for the upholding of the principles of this great American republic and the suppression of treason."

Cuban Rebels Again Defeated.

HAVANA, May 9.—A band of twenty rebels have been defeated by the troops at the Matagosa farm, near Torcedo, in the Colon district. One of the rebels was killed, and they lost their arms and horses. The troops are pursuing them. It is rumored that Carlos Castillo desires to surrender with his band to the authorities. Maximino Gomez intends to invade Camaguey, in the province of Puerto Principe.

Lost his Position.

That really happened to a certain grocer's clerk, because he couldn't induce customers to take an inferior brand of washing powder in place of Pearlina. The grocer said, "If you can't sell what I want you to sell, I don't want you."

Now it doesn't take a very wise woman to decide whether this was an honest grocer. And a woman wise enough for that, would be likely to insist upon having nothing but Pearlina. There is nothing "as good as" or "the same as" Pearlina, the original—in fact, the only—washing-compound. If they send you something else, send it back.

RAIN INDICATIONS.

Why Cirrus Clouds Tell With Almost Absolute Certainty of Coming Storms.

In order to better understand the role played by cirrus clouds as rain indicators, we must first discuss the causes of these occurrences. A study of the weather indications and barometrical readings, as they appear in our daily papers from the report of our "Weather Bureau," shows that areas of high or low air pressure are constantly passing over the earth's surface in irregular succession. The areas of high atmospheric pressure—or barometrical maxima, meteorologically expressed—stay longer in one locality than the areas of low pressure—the depression or barometrical minima. These last are more or less defined currents of air, which circle in the form of "wind around the region of the lowest atmospheric pressure, moving always from north to west or from south to east—the reverse of the hands of a clock. It must not be imagined, however, that the air simply moves around this area of depression, but rather that it is constantly being drawn into its center and is carried upward in great whirls or spirals. As the air rises, it expands and becomes colder. The vapors it contains condense into clouds and finally are transformed into rain. The center of the barometrical depression is therefore marked by cloudy, rainy weather. The wind which encircles the depression becomes more active as the difference of the atmospheric pressure becomes more marked, or, in other words, as the barometer falls.

In brief, therefore, barometrical depressions are caused by huge ascending spirals, or whirls of air, which are carried upward to extreme heights, and from there are wafted away in any direction. In these heights the humidity of the atmosphere is frozen and is wafted away in closed forms which are composed of ice crystals. These are none other than cirrus clouds, and they may float several hundred miles from the seat of the depression. It will now be seen why cirrus clouds may be justly regarded as forerunners of rain, even when they make their appearance in clear weather. They tell with absolute certainty of an approaching atmospheric depression, and this is substantiated by a gradual falling of the barometer soon after they make their appearance.—Home and Country.

THE WILDEST LAND.

Oregon Has the Honor of Having the Roughest Tract Known to Man.

Assistant Chief Goode of the United States geological survey, who visited Oregon last summer, says that the wildest region of the entire United States is an area of 1,000 square miles lying in the mountains between Roseburg and Coquille in Douglas and Coos counties. He describes it as a mysterious undiscovered country, in which roams undisturbed wild game, and whose brooks and rivers are filled with wild fowl. It is nearly all covered with a dense growth of pine, fir, hemlock and other trees. Many of the trees are of enormous size and stand so closely that it is difficult for men to make their way between them. Where the trees are not so thick the heavy growth of bushes of various kinds takes their place.

It is a country that is filled with all kinds of "wild game," including, as reported to him, elk, different kinds of bear, mountain lions, deer and other animals, including lynx and others. There are also the varied kinds of fowl. The streams all have an abundance of trout and other kinds of fish. He penetrated into the wilds a dozen miles and saw things that filled him with wonder at the vastness of the forest, and that any one should attempt to live in it.—Northwest Magazine.

Dressing the Small Boy.

A boy of 2½ or 3 years of age is not too young for kilts and blouses, but do not put him into trousers. Any of the thick flannels or soft cloths that are used for cloaks for little girls will make a suitable coat for him. A coat buttoned down the front, with a deep collar or small cape reaching to the shoulders, is a good style for a boy. Be sure to protect his feet with overshoes and long garters when he goes out. It is very important to have the feet warm as well as dry. Neglect of this precaution is apt to bring on an attack of croup in children who are predisposed to it, and it is a fruitful source of colds. A woolen Tam O'Shanter is a pretty head covering when it is not necessary to cover the ears. In that case have a felt hat trimmed with velvet and broad strings to tie under the chin. The three cornered continental hat is still worn and is very picturesque.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Facts Worth Knowing

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuff, powders or astringents, because they are irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm. Your druggist has it.

Is Marriage a Failure.

Have you been trying to get the best out of existence without health in your family? Have you been wearing out your life from the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion? Are you sleepless at night? Do you awake in the morning feeling languid, with coated tongue and sallow, haggard looks? Don't do it. A shout in the camp tells how Bacon's Celery King has cured others; it will cure you. Trial package free. Large sizes $5.00, and $10.00, at 7 J. Chambers at West Main street.

WHY POETRY IS PLENTIFUL.

Views of an English Critic on America's Minor Poets.

With "Transatlantic Bardlets" as his headline, a writer in the London Saturday Review prefaces some rather savage criticism of several books of verse recently published in America with the following lively remarks:

They are uncommonly like the English poetings, these transatlantic bardlets, but there are more of them. This is not because the States are less poetical than the mother country, but because they have more people. Moreover, "culture" is generally held in higher esteem there, and to appear in print is an undoubted mark of having obtained it, just as a university degree is a proof, among the English middle classes, of its proud possessor's right to be regarded as a scholar and a gentleman.

But if the authorship of a book is a certificate of taste and reading it becomes a diploma in honors when that book consists of metrical matter. Now, about 75 per cent of moderately educated persons can write lines which sometimes seem, often rhyme and occasionally make sense, and a painfully large proportion of these are impelled to establish their characters in the eyes of their neighbors by the publication of these so called verses. A little money or the power of deluding a publisher's reader, a simple tribe, is all that is needed. It must be added that at times the "poems" are a genuine crude success, as are in England, for instance, the innocent maunderings of Sir Edwin Arnold and Mr. Lewis Morris, a fact which encourages scores, nay, hundreds, of other ambitious and avaricious rhymesters to emulate the lucky men.

In the States, too, they have their dear little cliques of mutual admirers, like our fair brotherhood of the Rhymers' club and the Bodley Head, who generously praise one another's songs—which they read (or neglect to read) in presentation copies—and they thus maintain one another's spirit on a little better. And then, of course, there are always one's aunts and sisters and wives and that sort of thing. There are more of these in the United States than here; hence there is more minor poetry.

PAPA WAS TOO LATE.

How a Manufacturer's Daughter Did Not Become My Lady.

Some years ago I was acting as curate in a large London parish. Two young people in whom I was greatly interested were to be married on a certain Wednesday in April. Curious to custom, the bride arrived before the bridegroom—indeed the bridegroom never arrived at all.

It subsequently transpired that the bridegroom had disappeared the previous evening and was nowhere to be found. He has not been found to this day. No cause for his disappearance was ever assigned, nor has any clue to his whereabouts ever been discovered. The poor young bride succumbed to the shock, and it was my melancholy duty to officiate at her burial some weeks later.

One more case, and I have done. A curate, in receipt of little more than £100 a year, proposed to the daughter of a wealthy north country manufacturer and was accepted. Paterfamilias was extremely angry at this and forbade the young fellow his house. Candor compels me to state that the daughter offered very little resistance to her father's objections, and the curate, who was genuinely fond of the girl, removed to a distant parish.

Two months after this event he fell into a baronetcy and rather more than £3,000 a year. The manufacturer saw that he had made a mistake and opened up negotiations in a letter. By return he received a telegram with the laconic information, "Too late." We may be certain that the good manufacturer's wife gave him a large "piece of her mind," as the saying goes.—London Answers.

He Didn't Post the Letter.

Without asserting in so many words that "the woman who ceaselessly complains and sobs, and generally makes a nuisance of herself to every one who is cursed by being brought into contact with her," repeat out a large proportion of her sex, a recent Dr. Cyrus D. Landon, so far succeeds in impressing the reader's mind to this effect as to throw him upon the defensive, if he be a man, by quickening his apprehensions of personal peril. Variations of the temper thermometer he has passed over as common to all classes and conditions of women may be the incipient stages of the "cursed shrewishness" that drives men to madness and murders love, and sometimes, in scorpion fashion, stings the shrew herself to death.

Nagging grows by what it feeds upon. What a tolerant, because ignorant, husband may be ready to excuse as passing petulance may be a cockatrice egg. "Continual streams of scolding, lasting three or four hours" may await him in the future unless heroic measures are adopted without delay. He will not be so ready to "lass and make up" the next time he is chidden for carrying an important letter in his pocket for a week after it was given to him to post—Marion Harland in North American Review.

THURSDAY, MAY 9, 1915.

The White Star and Cunard lines have raised the price of steerage tickets from $10 to $15.

The blanket ballot bill as finally agreed on in conference, provides that an illiterate voter may have the help of two election officers, inspectors, poll clerks or ballot clerks, in the preparation of his ballot. The men who assist him must, however, be of opposite political faiths. The bill as finally agreed on is not acceptable to the "Goo-goos," but their opposition will not avail, and it will be passed in its present form.

In order to fool the people the Republican leaders at Albany have resorted to the old Republican device of holding over until next year large appropriations that ought to have been made this year. Nearly a million dollars will, it is expected, be saddled on next year's Legislature by this "holding over" juggle, which in view of the expensive and extravagant legislation of the session is the only device by which the tax rate can be kept down.

Civil Service Commissioner McKinstry, a Republican, whose office makes him familiar with officeholders and their salaries, has become alarmed at the recklessness with which the Republican Legislature has increased the number of official places and the salaries of officials under the State government. In a carefully considered article he advises the Legislature to call a halt, and says that before there is any further extravagance in the matter of offices and salaries, "it would be well for the Legislature to take tab and pencil and figure up what has already been done, and see how it will strike the public when bunched together for the approval or disapproval of the taxpayers."

CITY MISSIONARY UNION.

Election of officers—Summary of the Year's Work.

At the annual meeting of the City Missionary Union, yesterday, the following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. E. E. C. Brown.
Vice-President—Mrs. O. E. O'Neill.
Secretary—Mrs. G. A. Swaim.
Treasurer—Mrs. L. M. Corwin.
Emergency Committee—First Ward, Mrs. E. O. Nell, 210 North Street; Mrs. Fred Crippen, 43 Linden Terrace; Mrs. DeWitt Wood, 336 North Street. Second Ward—Mrs. Horton Vail, 51 Highland avenue; Mrs. R. M. Rott, 1 Beacon street; Adelia Near, 27 Knapp avenue. Third Ward—Mrs. L. V. Sinsabaugh, 150 Morhagen avenue; Mrs. Ackerman, 47 Mulberry street. Fourth Ward—Mrs. John Silk, 20 East Main street; Mrs. E. McNiff, 130 East Main street; Mrs. John Russell, 10 William street.

The good work of the Union was so admirably summarized and reviewed in the article on the Union published in the Woman's Edition of the Argus that it seems unnecessary to print in full the report made at yesterday's meeting. The Union is one of Middletown's most useful charities and the unselfish Christian ladies who so gladly give their time to its work are worthy of all encouragement and support in what they are doing for God and humanity.

ELECTRIC ROAD'S ANNIVERSARY.

Informally Celebrated at Midway Park

Last Night—Concert by the 24th

Band—The Roller Coaster Opened.

Just one year ago, yesterday, the electric cars began running in this city. In honor of the anniversary it had been arranged to hold an informal celebration at Midway Park, last evening, a concert by the 24th Company Band and a dance in the pavilion.

The shower, which came up in the early evening, kept at home many who had planned to visit the park, but there was a large crowd there in spite of the rain. The concert was given as advertised, and very good it was, the band playing in a style that surprised those who did not know how faithfully its members have practiced. The dance after the concert was a very enjoyable one, the dancing platform being kept well filled.

The roller coaster was opened to the public, yesterday afternoon. No charge was made in the afternoon, and though the shower interfered with business in the evening, a good many people made the circuit of the hill. The ride is a very pretty and pleasant one and is without danger. The coaster is certain to prove one of the most popular attractions at the park.

The observatory on Hopper Hill was illuminated, last night, for the first time. The effect was very pretty.

Terrible Itching

"I had what the doctors pronounced to be eczema. It was accompanied by severe itching, and my limbs pained me a good deal and were swollen. I became all broken out with pimples. This caused me to scratch, and the eruptions turned into one solid sore. The disease spread all over my body."

Mr. T. T. Craig At length, my attention was called to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I concluded to give it a trial. This was in April, and I continued faithfully with it until Christmas. At the same time I took the medicine, I ate anything that suited my appetite.

I am now cured and have no signs of the disease except a little inflamed color where the sores gathered. My affliction is healed; I feel like myself again." E. T. CRAIG, Halfway, Va.

TO RESUME BUSINESS.

The Horton & McBurney store in the Opera House Block to be reopened Saturday with Mr. Horton in charge.

When the firm of Horton & McBurney failed in the latter part of March through no fault of their own, there was a general expression of regret.

The young men had worked hard to build up a business and were deserving of success, but with the hard times of the few years previous and the lack of sufficient capital to tide them over the business depression they were forced to go to the wall.

Mr. C. Macardell was made the assignee and hoped to be able to dispose of the stock and save the young men something.

Finally, however, Mr. J. M. Horton, of New York, decided to see what he could do for his nephew, Mr. S. D. Horton, the senior member of the firm of Horton & McBurney, and opened negotiations with the creditors which resulted in his advancing to S. D. Horton the money necessary for him to resume the business, which he will do by the opening of the store on Saturday morning. Sufficient new goods to make the stock first class in every respect will be added at once.

Everybody will be pleased to know the store is to be reopened and that Mr. Horton had an uncle so liberal as he found in Mr. J. M. Horton, of New York.

STRUCK BY THE O. AND W. MILK TRAIN.

A Carriage Containing Two Ladies and a Child Run Down at the Railroad Avenue Crossing—No One Seriously Hurt.

Mrs. William Hallock, of No. 8 Horton avenue, with her daughter, Mrs. Lamoreaux, and a child of the latter had a very narrow escape from a serious accident, if not instant death, at the Railroad and Beattie avenue crossing of the O. and W. about 6:45 o'clock last evening.

Mrs. Lamoreaux is employed at Thrall Hospital and her mother called for her, last evening, with a horse and buggy to take her home. They had just reached the crossing above mentioned as the O. and W. milk train approached.

Engineer Parlee saw the rig on the track and applied the air brakes and reversed his engine. The engine, however, struck the hind wheel of the vehicle, throwing all three occupants out and knocking the horse down.

Mrs. Lamoreaux sustained a fracture of the left collar bone, and Mrs. Hallock a slight contusion on the head. The child was unhurt. The wagon was badly broken up, and it was at first thought that the horse was injured, but it soon rallied and appears to be none the worse for its fall.

The ladies were taken to their homes and their injuries dressed by Dr. Mills.

RUN OVER BY A TRUCK.

The Little Daughter of John B. Dailey Run Over on Low avenue. The Driver Not to Blame.

About six o'clock, last evening, as truckman John Sheeris was driving through Low avenue, opposite the Wickham avenue depot, Mabel, the four-year daughter of Mr. John B. Dailey, darted into the street from the sidewalk in front of her home and ran directly in front of the wheels of the loaded truck. She was knocked down and before Mr. Sheeris could stop his horse, both wheels had passed over the little one's body. She was picked up and carried into her home, and Drs. Lemon and Spiegel were summoned. The child it is thought is injured internally, but is resting quite comfortably to-day.

Bystanders who saw the mishap, say that it was not through any fault of Mr. Sheeris that the accident occurred. The child ran so quickly that he had no time to stop.

INJURED IN A RUNAWAY.

William VanGelder, of Westtown, Has an Arm Broken in Two Places.

While William VanGelder, a farmer residing near Westtown, was on his way home from the Minnick Dairy Company's creamery, this morning, his horse took fright at an umbrella in the hands of Statton Agent W. J. Drake who was riding with him, and ran away. The horse kicked viciously as it ran and finally wrecked the wagon. Mr. VanGelder was thrown out and had one of his arms broken in two places and sustained other injuries. Mr. Drake escaped injury.

The Sunday School Conference—Funeral of John Sullivan—Gone Fishing—Cemetery Association Officers—Other Notes.

(From Our Regular Correspondent)

—At the inter-denominational Sunday School conference held in the Presbyterian Church, yesterday afternoon and evening, the attendance was small, but the meetings were interesting. IN ANCIENT COSHEN.

The Ladies' Whist Club—The Summer Inhabitants of Goshen Returning—Other Personal and Local Notes—Kind Words for the Woman's Argus—Concerning Fires and When to Let Them Out.

(From Our Special Correspondent)

—The Ladies' Whist Club met, last Friday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Gott, on South street. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, at the St. Elmo Hotel, Mrs. Louis Bedell being the hostess.

—Miss Alice Neffie, of this village, left, on Monday evening, for Bradford, Pa., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Russell Strait, at her home in that village.

—The public library books are all most ready for circulation.

—Mrs. Howard Taylor, of New York, will occupy the Wisner Murray cottage, on Main street, this summer.

—Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wisner and family will spend the summer at the home of the Misses Grier, on South street.

—Mr. George C. Miller and family are occupying their summer home in this village.

—Mr. Augustus L. Ireland spent last Sunday with his family, at their home at Crystal Run.

—The writer has heard many kind things said of the Woman's Argus by the good people of Goshen.

—Perhaps there is no one thing that causes more discussion in families at this season of the year than the question of whether or not the fires should be allowed to go out. This subject of fires anyway is one upon which no two members of even the most united family were ever known to agree. Each one is firmly convinced that he or she is the only one in the house who really knows how to build or manage one; but when the important question whether the furnace fire should be let out or the stoves taken down is discussed, there often arises a coolness that is not entirely caused by atmospheric changes. If the warmer blooded members carry the point and the verdict is in favor of no fire, the mercury is sure to drop, when the chilly ones will shiver ostentatiously and make remarks calculated to wound the sensitive feelings of the former. If, on the other hand, the decision is given forth that fires are to be continued, there is a martyr-like expression on the faces of those who voted for a veto, and a general opening of windows and imprudent sitting in draughts. Probably the best thing to do in this climate would be to have two houses, one heated the other not, so that all tastes would be satisfied. It might be a trifle expensive, but would avoid family discussions, which are always wearisome.

Working Up an Electric Light Scheme.

The Roscoe Review says that R. H. Van Ness, of the North End Machine Works, of Middletown, is in Roscoe and Rockland trying to interest the people of those villages in a scheme for erecting an electric light plant.

The persons cured of Rupture by Drs. Jones & Potter, without operation and loss of time, say they much prefer to be without either Rupture or truss, than to suffer by both and live in fear of strangulation.

OBITUARY.

Abbie A. Smith.

(From our Goshen Correspondent)

Mrs. Abbie A. Smith died at her residence on Church street, Goshen, at about 8 o'clock, last night, of paralysis, she being stricken on the night previous, after returning home from attending prayer meeting in the Presbyterian Church. The particulars of her affliction were mentioned in last night's Argus.

Mrs. Smith was a highly respected resident of Goshen, and had a large circle of friends. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was always a willing worker in all the duties she was called upon to perform in connection with the church and Sunday school.

The deceased was the daughter of the late Gabriel Bennet, and was born in 1842, on the homestead farm, two miles west of Goshen, on the Maple avenue road. Her only brother, Mr. William H. Bennet, owns and still resides on the same farm. Her husband, the late John A. Smith, who was a prosperous merchant, of Goshen, died nearly twenty years ago. Mrs. Smith is survived by one son, Mr. H. H. Smith, boot and shoe merchant, of this village. She also is survived by one sister, Mrs. S. Logan Kniffin, of this village. Another sister, now deceased, was the wife of Mr. William Newman, now residing in Middletown.

The funeral will be held at 11:30 o'clock, Saturday morning, from her late residence. Interment in the family plot in Phillipsburgh Cemetery.

INVESTIGATING THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

He Refused to Arrest a Man Who Had Made an Assault.

The time of the Board of Trustees of Port Jervis, last evening, was taken up in an investigation of a complaint made by E. O. Biernie, against Chief of Police Yaples. It was for refusing to make an arrest when requested to do so by himself and Stephen Short, owner of a saloon at which a row occurred, in which a man named Duffy made a fierce assault on Biernie with a water pitcher. The Chief stated that he did not consider he had any authority to make the arrest.

The matter was finally left to the President to settle.

THE PLACE WHERE IMITATIONS OF THE HUMAN FORM ARE MADE.

Fashioned in Clay from Living Models. Figures Used for Displaying Articles of Wearing Apparel—The Beautiful Fencer Needed So Worth of Repairs.

"Come down here, Sweet Marie, and let me make you." A customer in one of the Sixth Avenue shops was startled by the above remark, and turning saw one of the clerks removing a dainty black coat from the wax bust that stands all day in the shop window looking out at the passengers on the elevated road.

The clerk explained that she and the other girls in that department had given names to each of these waxen figures. "They seem almost alive to us," said she.

Most of the wax figures used for this purpose are no longer imported, but are made in this city. The manufacturer has his workrooms in Canal street.

A reporter who visited the place at first fancied he had entered the dressing room of some living pictures. Directly opposite the door sat a figure clothed only in a suit of woven underwear and a pair of high heeled slippers. In a far corner sat another figure clad in black rights. There were several other figures in wax standing about the room, but the long lashes never quivered over the bright eyes, nor did the smiling lips relax, nor the pink flush on the cheeks deepen at the coming of a stranger in their midst.

The proprietor gave an interesting account of how a wax figure is born into the world, be it an Indian warrior or a society belle wearing a riding habit and seated on a horse's back. He has made over 300 wax models in eight years. He says that a beautiful arm is about the most difficult thing to find in a model. There was a dimpled wax one, with a tiny, flowerlike hand, fastened to one of the ladies in rhyms. It was not molded from the cast of a professional model's arm, but from that of a girl who worked up stairs. When she found she had an arm that could earn more money from being beautiful than it could by its skill in work, she went away to become a professional model as to arms. But this artist in wax has six models of the perfect arm, so it isn't likely that his waxen women will ever be "Venus de Milos."

In making a wax figure the pose of the living model is first arranged. Then a clay model is made from the living one. Over the clay model is formed the plaster cast. When this is hard, the melted wax, which has previously been colored the desired flesh tint, is poured in and left to harden to a certain thickness. Then the superfluous wax, which has not yet cooled, is poured out, and the proper thickness is given to the plaster cast shaped like the living model.

The hair is put on one hair at a time, and with due regard to the way it should grow. This work is done by five young women. The delicate work of making the wax out of the eye sockets and from between the lips, tinting the lips and cheeks and fastening in the eyes and teeth is left for the artist. The waxen models are much like those in a wax doll, but the teeth are as natural as the dentist's skill can make them.

When a figure is ordered to advertise a corset, the model must lace herself in one of the corsets to be advertised as tightly as women pictured in a fashion paper. It is therefore necessary that the model shall be built on different lines from those who usually pose for painters. The price of a life size figure is from $100 to $200. For a bust the price is $40. Repairs cost $6 or $7 a year, for, unlike real flesh and blood beauties who thrive on admiration, these big wax dolls become worn and faded from being exhibited. At such times they are sent back to the artist in a box to be freshened up.

One of these great boxes stood in the corner of the workroom the other day. Inside was a beautiful figure in fencing costume. Her head was thrown back, her model foot was thrown forward and her lovely arms held in proper position for a bout with the foils. The artist will mend the broken finger, fix the hair, touch up the flesh tints, arrange the costume and give the figure a life-like pose. Then she will be put in the box and sent to her owner, with a bill for $6.

If you ask the artist where he found the model for his clients, he will only smile and say, "I never give the names of my models," but it would be a fair guess to conclude that his favorite model for that bit of dimpled work is his own child—New York World.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsville, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 10, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I haven't lost a day since. I am 55 years old, 6 ft. 4 1/2 inches and weigh 250 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

Dyesville, Ohio. SILAS FARLEY.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.00 per bottle for $5.00 or it will be sent prepaid on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

THE RUBBER CAN LIE.

For Instance, It Can Transform a Small Fish into a Big One.

The amateur photographer who is also an angler is well aware that his camera will back him up when boasting of his occasional prowess. One photo I saw represented a huge fish, the length of which appeared to equal that of a 2 foot tele, which was also shown. In reality the "snake" was a little dace, or carp, and while being photographed it had been held very close to the lens. The rule of camera, was taken some distance away.

One of my acquaintances was once engaged by both sides in a law case. A company, which I will call the City Lands Improvement company, wanted to abolish a certain creek leading from Lombard street to King William street and were willing to establish in its stead a passage through one of their own buildings. The company's plea was that the creek was a dingy, not to say dirty, one, and, furthermore, that it was haunted by loafers of questionable character.

Counsel for the other side, representing merchants having offices in the court, stoutly maintained that the passage was well lighted and eminently respectable. Photographs were handed in from both sides. The first photo showed a narrow, disreputable looking alley, strewn with rubbish and falling boarding. The other picture, however, showed the court in dispute to be a fairly broad, well lighted city thoroughfare, frequented by merchants of the highest appearance. These photographs were taken for the house of lords committee, but the matter was amicably settled.

Here is another case: The Shuttle Machine company wanted their premises in Chapel street and another sewing machine room moved in. In order to make up the established reputation of the company the said tenant left the old name on the windows and over the door, but added the word "late" in very minute characters for his own protection. The Shuttle company wanted a photographer to take a view of the offending shop front from a tailor's window opposite. When this photograph was produced in court, it was handed to the presiding judge with a powerful glass, whereupon his lordship was able to perceive that what appeared to the eye to be a mere ornamental dash was in reality the protecting word "late." The photographer himself, by the way, was not aware of this. The aggrieved sewing machine company secured an injunction.—Strand Magazine.

KILLED BY THEIR ARMOR.

It Weighed Too Much For the Stoutest Russian Soldiers.

One of the interesting features of the late czar's funeral was, as usual, the two men clad in medieval armor, one on horseback and the other on foot. The mounted knight had his visor open, and his armor was of burnished gold, which glittered in the sun. He symbolized life.

The other was on foot. His armor was coal black steel. His visor was closed, and in his hand he bore a drawn two handed sword, the blade of which was shrouded in erape. He symbolized death.

The weight of the two suits of armor is so great that, notwithstanding the most gigantic men of the imperial guard being selected to don them, the one on foot who officiated at the obsequies of Emperor Nicholas I fell dead from exhaustion on reaching the church of St. Peter and Paul, where the imperial funeral service is situated. While at the funeral of Alexander II the black knight fainted during the march from the Winter palace to the place of interment and was carried to the hospital, where he died the same night.

A similar fate overtook the black knight at the recent czar's funeral. It was observed that he could scarcely drag himself along during the latter part of the procession through the capital, and on reaching the fortress he sank unconscious to the ground and has since died.—New York Advertiser.

The Tallahassee Madstone.

The most famous southern madstone belongs in the family of ex-Governor Walker of Tallahassee, Fla. The stone was presented to the governor several years ago by the person who took it from the stomach of a deer. The valuable little concretion is about in shape, about 1 1/2 inches in length and of a bluish-gray color. One end tapers to a blunt point; the other is flattened and has an aperture through which the string, or suture, interior may be easily seen. When in use, the opening is applied directly over the wound, and the purgative substance which forms the interior of the stone is supposed to "suck out" and absorb the poisonous matter which has entered by a heavily sutured or lacerated wound. Persons who have seen the stone apply it declare that it adheres firmly to the wound as long as the wound is a part of a wound in the system.—St. Louis Republic.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersen, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was taken down with pneumonia, succeeding la grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Blood Poison

THE BANE OF HUMAN LIFE,

Driven Out of the System by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

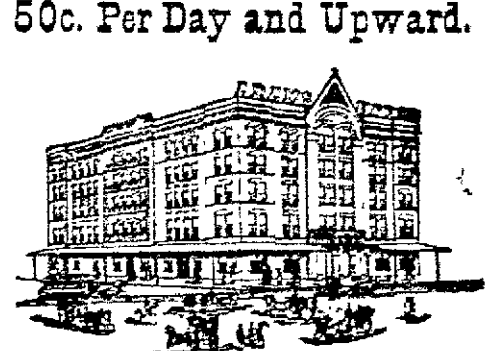

"For five years, I was a great sufferer from a most persistent blood disease, none of the various medicines I took being of any help whatever. Hoping that change of climate would benefit me, I went to Cuba, to Florida, and then to Saratoga Springs, where I remained some time drinking the waters. But all was no use. At last, being advised by several friends to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I began taking it, and very soon favorable results were manifest. To-day I consider myself a perfectly healthy man, with a good appetite and not the least trace of my former complaint. To all my friends, and especially young men like myself, I recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla, if in need of a perfectly reliable blood-purifier."—J. A. E. CONAN, proprietor Hotel Victoria, Key West, Fla.; residence, 52 W. 14th St., New York.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osceola,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KINCHELOE,
CONRAD, ARK.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

THE STORY OF A CLIPPER.

She Sailed Like a Witch and Engaged in More Trades Than One.

A young Swede came to this country in 1851 with some money and the intention of building a craft to be fitted up for passengers to the World's fair in London. For this purpose he located himself at Portsmouth, contracted with shipbuilders who had shipyards at Elliot, just opposite Portsmouth, for a ship of about 1,000 tons, with expensive cabin arrangements for passengers. The model of the ship was that of an extreme clipper.

When nearly completed, the projector fell short of money. Masts, spars and sails had all been contracted for and were in a state of forwardness. The mechanics concluded to complete the ship and put her in the hands of Governor Goodwin of Portsmouth for sale, each contractor to take his pro rata of his contract.

When completed, the ship, under mechanics' lien, was transferred to the governor, brought to Boston, purchased by Sampson & Tappan, named the Nightingale and under the command of a Captain Dumaresque sailed for Australia with a cargo valued at $125,000. From there she proceeded to China, where she took the highest freight of the season, $5 per ton for London. To test her merits Messrs. Sampson & Tappan published in the London Times a challenge to the British merchant fleet to race from the Downs to China and back for $10,000—a distance of nearly 30,000 miles. But no one could be found to accept the challenge. She was afterward sold to a Salem house, who sent her to Rio Janeiro, where she was sold and sent to the coast of Africa as a slaver, was captured by a United States cruiser, the slaves liberated and the vessel sent home. She was subsequently used by the government during the rebellion, and after the close of the war was sold and put into the California trade. The Nightingale made the shortest known run from the equator to Melbourne—23 days. Her whole passage from New York was 68 days. Proceedings of the Bostonian Society.

VARIETIES OF MARBLE.

Where the Different Kinds Are Found and Their Relative Value.

The selection of marble for a monument is altogether a matter of taste. The finest statuary marbles are found in Italy and Greece, but are very expensive, costing from $15 to $20 per cubic foot. In the United States good statuary marble has for several years been quarried at West Rutland, Vt., where a layer from three to four feet thick is interstratified with 40 or 50 feet of clouded marble. The finest of statuary marble is found at Pittsford, Vt., where there is a bed 20 feet thick, from which blocks have been taken capable of taking a very fine finish. This marble belt extends north and south of Rutland county, through Vermont and Massachusetts, but in losses in quality in both directions. Toward the north it is finer and harder, but less sound, and toward the south it becomes coarser. Another belt of white marble extends along the flanks of the Alleghenies, through a part of Massachusetts, through New York and Maryland and into Virginia beyond the Potomac river. It is quarried at various places in Westchester county, N. Y., and at Baltimore—At Canaan, Conn., and at Lee, Mass., and other places in New England, good building marble is quarried. Marble from Lee was used for the extension of the capitol at Washington. Variegated marbles are found in several localities in the United States. A mottled lilac, chocolate and white, known as Tennessee marble, is regarded with favor for mantels, tables, etc. Another of red, brown and white is quarried at Burlington, Va., but it is rather difficult to work on account of the silica it contains.—Montreal Star.

Afraid of Luxuries.

"Last winter," said Mr. H. R. Coleman of Chicago, "I had the pleasure of attending a swell dinner given by one of our millionaire townsmen, at which Gene Field was an invited guest. 'Field's brilliancy as a writer is in inverse ratio to his ability as a money getter. In fact, the element of thrift is sadly wanting in his makeup. 'There were many good things to tempt the palate, among them strawberries, which are a costly luxury in the dead of winter at Chicago. 'When Field's bowl of berries were placed beside him, he looked at them with the scrutinizing air of an epicure, and then, in a very emphatic way, pushed them to one side, noticing which his host said: 'Aren't you fond of strawberries, Mr. Field? 'Yes, very much indeed, but they spoil my appetite for pines.'"—Washington Post.

FUNERAL OF NATHAN J. MILLS.

The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. C. Forsythe, of Montgomery.

The pall bearers were Col. D. C. Dusenberry, Geo. Bartle, Daniel Finn and Thomas Watte, of this city, and Robert Bull and Harrison Bull, of Circleville.

The body was brought to this city and interred in the family plot in Hillside Cemetery.

THE SCHUBERT CLUB CONCERT.

A Leading Feature Will be the Tenor Solo by S. Fischer Miller.

All who were so fortunate as to be present at the anniversary services in the Presbyterian Church, Goshen, remember when Mr. Miller sang that grand number, "The Holy City," with such fullness of sympathy that every note went straight to the hearer's heart, and thus won the high praise given him. It is truly difficult to avoid extravagance of expression in discussing it.

Miss Hilke, who became a favorite at her first appearance in our city, will render several solos, and Miss Howland, who possesses a contralto voice of much sweetness, will also assist at the concert of the Schubert Club, May 10th, in the First Baptist Church.

The single tickets are now on sale at Hanford & Horton's.

WOMAN'S EDITION OF THE ARCUS

Newspapers Bestow Generous Praise on the Venture of Middletown Women in the Field of Journalism.

From the Kingston Leader.

The Middletown ARCUS issued a twenty-page woman's edition last Saturday. The paper is bright, new, and original.

From the Newburgh News.

The Woman's Edition of the Middletown ARCUS was issued on Saturday. The paper is well balanced, bright and interesting all through. It is a credit to all concerned, and should bring a large sum to the hospital treasury.

From the Newburgh Register.

On Saturday last, the ladies of Middletown took it upon themselves to publish a newspaper. The ARCUS had given them every facility—turned the entire establishment over to their tender mercy. The result was creditable alike to the ARCUS and to the ladies. It wasn't such a paper as one reads at the tea table every night; stories of runaway couples, fish yarns, murders, etc. The articles were of a more elevating tone, a grander class of literature, sparkling bits of wit, choicest poems and realistic pictures of christian home life.

The editorial management was looked after by Miss Cassie D. Friend, a lady who has had no little experience in newspaper work in the past, and was fully competent for the part assigned. The city department was cared for by Miss Margaret Beattie, and it is but just to say that her productions were far above the average furnished by city editors. Middletown people went wild over the Woman's Edition of the ARCUS, and they displayed good sense in buying up the edition as rapidly as it appeared on the streets. The proceeds will go to Thrall Hospital, and the treasury of that institution ought to be overflowing with dimes as the result of the effort put forward to aid it by the generous hearted proprietors of the ARCUS, and the noble ladies who accepted his tender of the office for the day.

A HUSTLING LAWYER

He Gives a Reporter Some Points on His Own Experience.

A well known lawyer said to an ARCUS reporter, this morning:

"Talk about reporters hustling; you ought to see a lawyer hustle when he has occasion to do so. Last Tuesday afternoon I had to go to a point two miles in the country from Tarrytown. I left on the 4:20 O. and W. train; at West Nyack I took a stage for Nyack, three miles distant, to reach the ferry line, but the boat had stopped running for the night.

"I then went to the depot of the Northern New Jersey road, intending to go to New York and go to Tarrytown on the Hudson River road, but there was no train out that night.

"I finally prevailed on two shad fishermen to ferry me over the river, which, at that point, is about four miles wide. Arriving at Tarrytown, I procured a rig and drove to my destination, reaching there in time to get my papers signed and get a few hours' sleep.

"Next morning I started out for Yonkers, where I proved a will, and started at 11:35 for New York on the Northern road, connecting with the elevated road, and reached the Erie depot in time to take the 1 o'clock train for Port Jervis, where I had an engagement at 4 o'clock. I had no time to spare, but I got there and came home on No. 8.

"Talk about hustling; you reporters are not in it with us lawyers."

SHOT FOR DEFENDING HIS MOTHER

A Newburgh Boy Who Went to His Mother's Help When a Man Struck Her Is Probably Fatally Injured.

John Levens, a night watchman in Newburgh, is in jail on the charge of shooting a seventeen-year-old boy named Henry O'Neill.

The shooting occurred at the home of young O'Neill at 6:30 o'clock, last evening. Levens was quarrelling with Mrs. O'Neill and struck her; the boy attempted to defend her when Levens pulled his revolver and fired, the ball entering the boy's head, making probably a fatal wound.
